SPC & YOU!

Revamped stanpride.org more user-friendly

Have you visited the SPC's online resource center for GLBTs in Stanislaus and surrounding counties lately? We recently upgraded stanpride.org, making it more comprehensive and easier to navigate.

The revamped site features an interactive drop-down menu so that pages on the site are easier to find. Archives of e-PRIDE weekly are now being stored in PDF format under the "News" option on the toolbar, and donors to the 2007-2008 Sustained Giving Circle are being recognized under the "About Us" section.

In addition, stanpride.org now links to the recently created queermodesto.com, which features a community blog forum.

Memories of 2007: the year in review

Bloggers at afterelton.com and afterellen.com are out with year-in-review type items now. Here two of the with conservative groups in a campaign against a new law barring discrimination against gay, lesbian and transgender students.

Conservative advocates have called the law, which was signed by Gov. Schwarzenegger in October, vague and indoctrinating, and suggested that protections for students' gender identity may confuse teachers.

more fun ones we found at each site respectively:

2007: Best Gay Year Ever! Michael Jensen of afterelton.com dishes on everything queer this year in a 12 page blog (lots of big pictures).

Five reasons why I loved/hated my TV in 2007 From Tina Fey to America Ferrera (loved), and Bionic Woman to Tila Tequila (hated), Dorothy Snarker's got it covered at afterellen.com.

The SPC facility is open Wednesday through Saturday from 3:00 PM until 7:00 PM.

The mission of the Stanislaus PRIDE Center is to provide resources to strengthen and support gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender persons in Stanislaus and surrounding counties."

The SPC has three areas of focus: Culture and Community; Education and Information; Health and Wellness. PRIDE stands for "People Respecting Individuality, Diversity and Education".
